

The 5th great message

On the evening of September 23, 2020, the feast day of St. Padre Pio, I received the fifth great message from Jesus at 7.43 p.m.

He said to me:

*I have delighted in you.*¹

What's Mine is yours.
I share everything with you.

Do not despair.
Everything will pass.
I'll stay forever.

(When I prayed the words: "... I thank you for all gifts, which I today again received from your holy and venerable hands ... ")

It's true: I am the great giver.
You (plural) receive everything through Me.

Generously I want to pour out My mercy on you.
Don't despair!
I take care of everything!

I protect you with My hand.
Nothing will happen to you.

People come and go.
I'll stay forever.

Listen to My voice!
It is whispering to you.

Great are My works!
Everything is possible for Me!
Humanity will be amazed
what I'll accomplish!

I like the way you honor Me!
Always be humble.
I like that.

Look at Me
then you cannot fall!
I am the light.
I'll show you the way.
If only everyone would look at Me!

I will give you many more messages!
It is necessary.

Write everything down carefully and proclaim it!
I like that.

Don't be afraid!
There is no longer any threat.

Stretch out your hand!
I will fill it for you!

Out of my fullness I give you abundantly!
More than you can carry.
Pass it on!

Look forward!
I am the light.

My works are great!
My deeds are great!
My ways are hidden from you (plural).

It will all be unveiled.
Everyone will see it.

Alleluia!
Praise the Father!
He is also My father.

I don't want you to be despondent!
You have no reason to.

Do what I tell you
then you can't go astray.
I AM YOUR GOD.

Amen.
